SRI B. B. SAYANAK.—Sir, according to the clock, the Question Hour will have to be extended by five minutes.

Hindi Teachers working in Municipal School Board, Belgaum

6. SRI B. P. NANDIHALI (Uchagaon):—

Will the Minister for Education be pleased to state:—

(a) the number of Hindi Teachers working in the Municipal School Board, Belgaum;

(b) whether the Hindi Teachers in old Mysore area are given increments as per rules;

(c) whether the Hindi Teachers are confirmed after three years, if not, the reasons therefor;

(d) whether the benefits applicable to General Teachers are also given to Hindi Teachers (i.e., Triple Benefit Scheme Pension, Provident Fund and Insurance Scheme, etc.)?

Sri N. M. KOTRABASAIAH SOGI (Deputy Minister for Education).—

(a) There is no separate Cadre of Hindi Teachers. There are 18 teachers qualified to teach Hindi in Municipal School Board, Belgaum.

(b) Irrespective of the area in which he is working, no untrained teacher recruited on or after 23rd June 1961 is granted increments.

(c) All teachers working against permanent posts are eligible for confirmation provided they have put in satisfactory service during the period of probation.

(d) The benefits are available to all teachers in schools aided by Government.

Sri P. B. NANDIHALI.—Supplementary to (a): When the teachers are qualified to teach Hindi, why should they not be given increments ?

Sri N. M. KOTRABASAIAH SOGI.—There is no separate category of Hindi teachers. They are treated like any other general teacher and increments are being given only to trained teachers. Untrained teachers of whatever category are not being given increments. With your permission, Sir, I wish to make an amendment to the answer. This question was answered when there were Municipal School Boards existing at Belgaum. Now there are no Municipal School Boards existing there.

Sri J. P. SARWESH.—There are part-time Hindi teachers and they are paid Rs. 50. This pay is worse than what we pay to Class IV servants.

Sri N. M. KOTRABASAIAH SOGI.—The pay is paid for the post. If it is a part-time vacancy, full salary cannot be paid for it.

Sri B. B. SAYANAK.—May I know whether there is no separate cadre of Hindi teachers in Old Mysore State ?

Sri N. M. KOTRABASAIAH SOGI.—Nowhere in the State is there any such cadre as Hindi Teachers.
